CLUB NOTES

By Watchman

THIS week we find ourselves with another home match and an opportunity to bring about a much-needed improvement in our League position. At the same time no player in our ranks will under-estimate the skill of Chesterfield, today's visitors to the Vetch Field, who have always supplied us with keen and skilful opposition.

We do, however, hope for a repetition of the grand form which our players displayed in the second half of their game with Barnsley, and if that is the case they should get further away from their present unenviable low position in the Second Division.

The successful debuts of Roberts and Howarth, our new players, were particularly satisfying, but no less pleasing was the return to form of several of the other members of the side. If the improvement can be maintained the Swans should soon start an appreciable climb in the League. The team is playing with a new spirit and we hope this will again be in evidence this afternoon against our dour opponents from Derbyshire.

WELL-KNOWN PLAYERS

There are several well-known players in the Chesterfield side, notably Milburn, who has been selected to play for the Football League against the Irish League, and Dale, the young winger who is considered a future England international.

It will require a first-class exhibition this afternoon to ensure the winning of two points, but a repetition of last week's form should do the trick.

Next Saturday our team will be in London for the match with Queens Park Rangers, and it looks as if we shall have a big following, for quite a number of supporters are going to Town for the game.
