Summary of

Receiver's comments on the Statement of Affairs
pursuant to Section 372(1) of the Companies Act 1948

ASSETS.

Trade Debtors including work-in-progress.

This item includes principally estimated balances on contracts subject to costs of completion, costs of rectification of maintenance defects and claims for delays and the balances are subject to the compilation and/or agreement of Final Accounts. It is likely that some long time must elapse before the balances can be finalised and it is not possible to forecast what sums these balances may produce.

Chattel assets.

These assets excluding plant on contract sites not yet released are being submitted for sale by auction and it is hoped that the effects may produce a gross sum not substantially less than the total value placed upon those assets in the statement of Affairs.

Assets specifically pledged.

The freehold property is the subject of a first fixed charge to the Debenture holder.

The motor vehicles and plant are on hire purchase.

Debenture Holder.

This item includes the balance of the First Debenture holder's claim of £60,000. and the liability to the Second Debenture holder of £23,000.

PREFERENTIAL CREDITORS.

These liabilities include claims for P.A.Y.E. Tax and Graduated and National Insurance Contributions, Wages and Holiday-Pay, and Profits Tax and also include a sum of £35,550. in respect of preferential advances of the Company's Bankers which are also secured under the Debenture.

GENERALLY.

On the information at present available it is by no means certain that the assets will produce sufficient to discharge the claims of the preferential creditors and First Debenture holder in full, leaving any surplus for the Second Debenture holder and it is apparent there can be no possibility of the unsecured creditors receiving any return.

R. James Dugay
Receiver.
