Swans100

Mae Swans100 yn brosiect ar y cyd rhwng Prifysgol Abertawe ac Ymddiriedolaeth Cefnogwyr Dinas Abertawe. Mae'n cofnodi profiad cefnogwyr o gefnogi Clwb Pêl-droed Dinas Abertawe, 'y Swans', dros y can mlynedd diwethaf.

Chwaraeodd clwb Tref Abertawe ei gêm bêl-droed broffesiynol gyntaf ym 1912 ac mae'n dal i fynd yn 2012 fel Dinas Abertawe, y clwb Cymreig cyntaf i chwarae yn Uwch-gynghrair yr FA.

Roedd teyrngarwch y cefnogwyr wedi cadw'r clwb i fynd drwy gyfnodau anodd. Mae Swans100 wedi sganio a thynnu ffotograffau o lwyth o'u pethau cofiadwy. Cynhaliwyd arolwg ar-lein, casglwyd profiadau ysgrifenedig a recordiwyd cyfweliadau. Mae'r canlyniadau sydd ar-lein yn www.swans100.org.uk, yn dangos sut mae cefnogwyr cyffredin wedi bod yn rhan o'r clwb am ganrif.

Mae Swans100 yn dal i gasglu gwybodaeth a lluniau. Ewch i'r wefan i weld sut gallwch helpu.

Mae'r arddangosfa hon, sy'n dangos peth o'r deunydd a gasglwyd, yn cael ei chynnal mewn dau le, yma ac yn Amgueddfa Abertawe. Gofynnwch i'r staff am fwy o fanylion am amserau agor Amgueddfa Abertawe. Os hoffech ddarllen fersiwn estynedig o'r testun, ewch i'r wefan.

Bu'r prosiect yn bosib drwy arian gan Gronfa Dreftadaeth y Loteri a roddodd grant i gyflogi Swyddog Prosiectau a chrynhoi'r archif. Ymhlith y cyfranogwyr eraill mae Clwb Pêl-droed Dinas Abertawe, Llyfrgell Ganolog Abertawe, Gwasanaeth Archifau Gorllewin Morgannwg, y South Wales Evening Post (Northcliffe Media), ac wrth gwrs holl gefnogwyr unigol y Swans sydd wedi bod yn rhan o'r prosiect.

Swans100 is a joint project between Swansea University and the Swansea City Supporters Trust. It is recording the fans' experience of supporting the Swansea City Football Club, 'the Swans', over the last one hundred years.

Swansea Town played their first professional football game in 1912 and is still going strong in 2012 as Swansea City, the first Welsh club to play in the FA Premier League.

The loyalty of the fans kept the club going through difficult times. Swans100 has scanned and photographed masses of their memorabilia.
It carried out an on-line survey, collected written experiences and recorded interviews. The results, online at www.swans100.org.uk, show how ordinary fans have been a part of the club for a century.

Swans100 is still collecting information and images. Look at the website to find out how you can help.

This exhibition, showing some of the material collected, is played over two halves, here and at Swansea Museum. Please ask staff for more details of the opening times of the National Waterfront Museum. If you'd like to read an expanded version of the text, please visit the website.

The project has only been made possible through funding from the Heritage Lottery Fund, who gave a grant to employ a Project Officer and compile the archive. Other contributors have been Swansea City FC, the Swansea Central Library, West Glamorgan Archive Service, The South Wales Evening Post (Northcliffe Media), and of course all of the individual Swansea fans who have been a part of the project.
